

How do I enroll in my professor's LexisNexis Web Course?

1. Go to <http://www.lexisnexis.com/lawschool> (the law school version of Lexis).
2. Click on the grey tab at the top labeled "Web Courses"
3. Log in using your LexisNexis Custom ID and password
4. Click on the button called "Launch Web Courses"
5. Click on the tabs at the top of the page called "Courses"
6. Click on "Browse Course Catalog"
7. Click on "Northeastern University"
7. Locate the name of the course and then click on the "Enroll" button.

How do I access a course which I have enrolled?

1. Follow steps 1-4 above
2. You will see all of your courses in the My Courses under the "Web Courses" tab. This "Web Courses" tab is your home page immediately after you log into Web Courses. The name of the course will be underlined and will be a hyperlink
3. Click on the underlined name of the course and you will open up the link to that particular course.

If you don't have a LexisNexis Custom ID and password or are having troubles with the Web Courses, please see a member of the library's reference staff for assistance or call the Reference Desk at 617-373-3594 or email the reference staff at lawreference@neu.edu
