

Selected Sources for Getting Published

Directories and other sources for journal information

Online Directory of Law Review and Scholarly Legal Publications is great for identifying law reviews and journals in certain subject areas. It also provides valuable contact information.

<http://www.andersonpublishing.com/lawschool/directory>

Al Joyner, Directory for Successful Publishing in Legal Periodicals (2d ed.) Reference K36.J69 1997x

This publication includes details about acceptance rates, preferred manuscript style, etc.

Ulrich's Directory of Periodicals

<http://www.ulrichsweb.com/ulrichsweb/>

PubList

<http://www.publist.com/>

Law Review Electronic Submissions includes a compilation of law reviews/journals that accept electronic submissions.

<http://www.nku.edu/~chase/libesubmission.html>

John Doyle, Washington and Lee University School of Law Library, Most-Cited American Legal Periodicals, ranks 688 legal periodicals by citation from journals or cases; most entries include a link to the periodical's website.

<http://law.wlu.edu/library/research/lawrevs/mostcited.asp>

Law Reviews and Journals on the Web

Northeastern University School of Law Library, Full-Text Law Reviews and Legal Journals

<http://www.slaw.neu.edu/library/journals.htm>

JURIST, Law Reviews lists American law reviews with a substantial presence on the Web; includes links for categories such as submissions, contact, etc.

<http://jurist.law.pitt.edu/lawrev.htm#A-I>

American Law Sources On-Line, United States-Law Reviews and Periodicals

<http://www.lawsources.com/also/usa.cgi?usj>

Sources That Track Calls for Papers and Law School Symposia

JURIST, <http://jurist.law.pitt.edu/calls.htm>

Papers Invited, <http://www.papersinvited.com/>

Salmon P. Chase College of Law, Northern Kentucky University, Law School Symposia,

<http://www.nku.edu/~chase/libsymposia.html>

Selected Articles on Law Review Ranking

Gregory Scott Crespi, Ranking International and Comparative Journals: A Survey of Expert Opinion, 31 International Lawyer 869 (1997).

Tracey E. George and Chris Guthrie, An Empirical Evaluation of Specialized Law Reviews, 26 Florida State University Law Review 813 (1999).

Robert M. Jarvis and Phyllis G. Coleman, Ranking Law Reviews: An Empirical Analysis Based on Prominence, 39 Arizona Law Review 15 (1997).

Fred R. Shapiro, The Most Cited Law Reviews (Interpreting Legal Citations), 29 Journal of Legal Studies 389 (2000).

Northeastern University School of Law Library, 6/03